OBJECTS

(3) The objects of the Association are:

(a) To constitute an autonomous inter-disciplinary body however comprised of parties interested or involved in the field of lightweight structures with the basic aim of promoting the proper application of lightweight structures, their design, fabrication, construction and materials, and the development of these and other aspects particular to lightweight structures.
(b) To establish itself as a reference body on lightweight structures.

(c) To collect and disseminate information in the field of its members, encouraging the exchange of information between members of those interested, through publications and the organization of meetings, seminars and conferences.

(d) To promote the proper application of lightweight structures.

(e) To contribute towards implementation of suitable guidelines for the design, analysis, fabrication, construction and application of lightweight structures.

(f) To encourage research and development in the field.

(g) To maintain links with international institutions and groups to update technology and information.

(h) To promote the services and products of the members.

(i) To represent generally the views of persons concerned with lightweight structures.

(j) To undertake and implement in such a manner as it thinks fit such other matters related to any or all of the above objects as may from time to time be deemed expedient by the committee.

B. INTERPRETATION

RULE 1.

(1) In these rules, except in so far as the context or subject matter otherwise indicates or requires:

“ordinary member” means a member of the committee who is not an office-bearer of the association, as referred to in rule 13 (2);

“secretary” means –

(a) the person holding office under these rules as secretary of the association; or

(b) where no such person holds that office – the public officer of the association;

“special general meeting” means a general meeting of the association other than annual general meeting.

“the Act” means the Association Incorporation Act, 1984;

“the Regulation” means the Associations Incorporation Regulation, 1985.

(2) In these rules –

(a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty; and

(b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, here the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

(3) The provisions of the Interpretation Act, 1987, apply to and in respect of these rules in the same manner as those provisions would so apply if these rules were an instrument made under the Act.
PART II – MEMBERSHIP

MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

RULE 2.

(1) Subject to these rules and any determinations of the committee, any individual corporation or body involved or interested in the field of lightweight structures is eligible to become a member of the association.

(2) Membership of the association shall consist of the following classes, the respective qualifications or characteristics required for admission to which are set out below.

(a) Company Members
   - consulting organisations
   - fabricators and specialist contractors
   - federal, state and local government departments
   - material manufacturers and suppliers

(b) Individual Members
   - individual architects
   - individual engineers and other specialists
   - employees of government departments
   - other interested individuals including users and owners

(c) Associate Members
   Other interested parties, including associations, related national and international organisations, academic, government and industry research groups.

(d) Student Members
   Students of architecture, engineering or associated disciplines who are enrolled in a tertiary teaching institution.

(e) Sponsor Members
   Financial supporters of the association

(f) Honorary Members
   Outstanding individuals who have contributed to the development of lightweight structures or given outstanding service to the association.

(3) A person referred to in Section 15(1) (a) of the Act who has not ceased to be a member of the association at any time after incorporation of the association under the Act shall be qualified to be a member of the association and that person shall be a member of that class of membership as the committee shall determine.

(4) A person who is eligible for membership and who:
   (i) has been nominated for membership of the association as provided by Rule 3, and
   (ii) has been approved for membership of the association by the committee shall also be qualified to be a member of the association.

(5) In the case of any incorporated body, which is eligible for membership, such natural person whom the committee in its absolute discretion decides to recognise as representing that body (whether or not such person in fact has authority to represent such body) shall be eligible for membership. While the committee continues to recognise a representative as representing a particular body, no other person shall be qualified to be a representative of the same body. A person shall be qualified to be a representative member notwithstanding that he or she may already be an individual member in his or her own right and vice versa.

(6) Honorary Membership may be invited by the association at an annual general meeting, following recommendation from the committee, to outstanding individuals who have contributed to the development of lightweight structures or given outstanding service to the association.

(7) Student members are eligible for transfer to individual membership, upon cessation of enrolment of tertiary institution. Student members must inform the secretary of the association of the date on which he or she ceased to be enrolled. Where a student member’s membership is not transferred within 12 months after the date on which he or she ceased to be enrolled, his or her membership will cease at the expiration of that 12 month period.

NOMINATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

RULE 3.

(1) A nomination of a person for membership of the association –

(a) shall be made by a member of the association in writing in the form set out in Appendix 1 these rules; and

(b) shall be lodged with the secretary of the association.

(2) As soon as practicable after receiving a nomination for membership, the secretary shall refer the nomination to the committee which shall determine whether to approve or to reject the nomination and the particular class of membership to which the nominee is to be admitted.

(3) Where the committee determines to approve a nomination for membership, the secretary shall, as soon as practicable after that determination, notify the nominee of that approval and request the nominee to pay within the period of 28 days after receipt by the nominee of the notification the sum payable under these rules by a member as entrance fee and annual subscription.

(4) The secretary shall, on payment by the nominee of the amounts referred to in clause (3) within the period referred to in that clause, enter the nominee's name in the register of members and; upon the name being so entered, the nominee becomes a member of the association and of the class determined by the committee.

CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP –

RULE 4.

A person ceases to be a member of the association if the person

(a) dies;

(b) resigns that membership; or

(c) is expelled from the association; or

(d) in the case of a member representing a body, if the committee in its absolute discretion decides to no longer recognise him or her as representing the body in respect of which he or she was admitted.
MEMBERSHIP ENTITLEMENTS NOT TRANSFERABLE

RULE 5.

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a member of the association –

(a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and

(b) terminates upon cessation of the person’s membership.

RESIGNATION OF MEMBERSHIP

RULE 6.

(1) A member of the association is not entitled to resign that membership except in accordance with this rule.

(2) A member of the association who has paid all amounts payable by the member to the association in respect of the member’s membership may resign from membership of the association by first giving notice (being not less than 1 month or not less than such other period as the committee may determine) in writing to the secretary of the member’s intention to resign and, upon the expiration of the period of notice, the member ceases to be a member.

(3) Where a member of the association ceases to be a member pursuant to clause (2), and in every other case where a member ceases to hold membership, the secretary shall make an appropriate entry in the register of members recording the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

REGISTER OF MEMBERS

RULE 7.

(1) The public officer of the association shall establish and maintain a register of members of the association specifying the name and address of each person who is a member of the association together with the date on which the person became a member and particulars of that person’s class of membership.

(2) The register of members shall be kept at the principal place of administration of the association and shall be open for inspection, free of charge, by any member of the association at any reasonable hour.

FEES, SUBSCRIPTIONS ETC.

RULE 8.

(1) A member of the association shall, upon admission to membership, pay to the association a fee of $1 or, where some other amount is determined by the committee, (either general or in respect of a particular class or membership) of that other amount.

(2) In addition to any amount payable by the member under clause (1), a member of the association shall pay to the association an annual membership fee of such amount as determined by the committee –

(a) except as provided by paragraph (b), before 1st July in each calendar year; or

(b) where the member becomes a member on or after 1st July in any calendar year – upon becoming a member and before 1st July in each succeeding calendar year.
MEMBERS’ LIABILITIES

RULE 9.

The liability of a member of the association to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the association or the cost, charges and expenses of the winding up of the association is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid by the member in respect of membership of the association as required by rule 8.

RESOLUTION OF INTERNAL DISPUTES

RULE 9A.

Disputes between members (in their capacity as members) of the association, and disputes between member and the association, are to be referred to a community justice centre for mediation in accordance with the Community Justice Centres Act, 1983.

DISCIPLINING OF MEMBERS

RULE 10.

(1) A complaint may be made by any member of the association that some other member of the association:

(a) has persistently refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of these rules; or

(b) has persistently and wilfully acted in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the association, or

(c) has refused or neglected to comply with the association’s Code of Ethics.

(2) On receiving such a complaint, the committee:

(a) must cause notice of the complaint to be served on the member concerned; and

(b) must give the member at least 14 days from the time the notice is served within which to make submissions to the committee in connection with the complaint; and

(c) must take into consideration any submissions made by the member in connection with the complaint.

(3) The committee may, by resolution, expel the member from the association or suspend the member from membership of the association if, after considering the complaint and any submissions made in connection with the complaint, it is satisfied that the facts alleged in the complaint have been proved.

(4) If the committee expels or suspends a member, the secretary must, within 7 days after the action is taken, cause written notice to be given to the member of the action taken, of the reasons given by the committee for having taken that action and of the member’s right of appeal under rule 12.

(5) The expulsion or suspension does not take effect:

(a) until the expiration of the period within which the member is entitled to appeal against the resolution concerned; or

(b) if within that period the member exercises the right of appeal, unless and until the association confirms the resolution under rule 12 (4), whichever is the later.
For the purpose of this rule, the association’s Code of Ethics shall be as set out below or as subsequently amended in such manner as the committee may from time to time determine and notify to members.

(a) The responsibility of members for the welfare, health and safety of the community shall at all times come before their responsibility to the industry and their profession, to sectional or private interests, or to other members.

(b) Members shall act to as to uphold and enhance the honour, integrity and the industry and their profession.

(c) Members shall build their reputation on merit and strive to achieve the highest standards in all endeavours, and shall compete fairly and legally.

(d) Members shall apply their skill and knowledge in the best interests of their clients.

(e) Members shall give evidence, express opinions, make statements or promote their services in an objective and truthful manner and on the basis of adequate knowledge.

(f) Members shall continue their technical development and shall actively assist and encourage members under their direction and other members to advance their knowledge and experience.

RIGHT OF APPEAL OF DISCIPLINED MEMBER

RULE 11.

(1) A member may appeal to the association in general meeting against a resolution of the committee which is confirmed under rule 11, within 7 days after notice of the resolution is served on the member, by lodging with the secretary a notice to that effect.

(2) The notice may, but need not, be accompanied by a statement of the grounds on which the member intends to rely for the purposes of the appeal.

(3) On receipt of a notice from a member under clause (1), the secretary must notify the committee which is to convene a general meeting of the association to be held within 28 days after the date on which the secretary received the notice.

(4) At a general meeting of the association convened under clause (3):

(a) no business other than the question of the appeal shall be transacted;

(b) the committee and the member shall be given the opportunity to state their respective cases orally, or in writing, or both; and

(c) the members present shall vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.

(5) If at the general meeting the association passes a special resolution in favour of the confirmation of the resolution, the resolution is confirmed.
PART III – THE COMMITTEE

POWERS, ETC. OF COMMITTEE

RULE 12.

The committee shall be called the committee of management of the association and, subject to the Act, the Regulation and these rules and to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting – pursuant to section 26(6) of the Act.

(3) An annual general meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS – CALLING OF

RULE 24.

(1) The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the association by means of a general meeting of members or by mail vote of members.

A mail vote of the members of the association shall be distributed to all financial members.
Replies to mail votes shall be in the hands of the secretary within fourteen (14) days of the advice of this vote, or within any other period as determined by the committee.

(2) The committee shall, on the requisition in writing of not less than 5 per cent of the total number of members, convene a special general meeting of the association.

(3) A requisition of members for a special general meeting –

(a) shall state the purpose or purposes of the meeting;
(b) shall be signed by the members making the requisitions;
(c) shall be lodged with the secretary; and
(d) may consist of several documents in similar form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.

(4) If the committee fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 1 month after the date on which a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 3 months after that date.

(5) A special general meeting convened by a member or members as referred to in clause (4) shall be convened as nearly as is practicable in the same manner as general meetings are convened by the committee.

NOTICE

RULE 25.

(1) Except where the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary shall, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause to be sent by prepaid post to each member at the member’s address appearing in the register of members, a notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.

(2) Where the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the association, the secretary shall, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be sent to each member in the manner provided in clause (1) specifying, in addition to the matter required under clause (1), the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.

(3) No business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting shall be transacted at the meeting except, in the case of an annual general meeting, business which may be transacted pursuant to rule 23(2).

(4) A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the secretary, who shall include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

PROCEDURE

RULE 26.

(1) No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.

(2) Five members present in person (being members entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.

(3) If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon the requisition of members shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

(4) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half and hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the members present (being not less than
3) shall constitute a quorum.

PRESIDING MEMBER

RULE 27

(1) The president or, in the president’s absence, the vice-president, shall preside as chairperson at each general meeting of the association.

(2) If the president and the vice-president are absent from a general meeting or unwilling to act, the members present shall elect one of their number to preside as chairperson at the meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

RULE 28.

(1) The chairperson of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.

(2) Where a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary shall give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each member of the association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(3) Except as provided in clauses (1) and (2), notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

MAKING OF DECISIONS

RULE 29.

(1) A question arising at a general meeting of the association shall be determined on a show of hands and, unless before or on the declaration of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the association, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number of proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

(2) At a general meeting of the association, a poll may be demanded by the chairperson or by not less than 3 members present in person or by proxy at the meeting.

(3) Where a poll is demanded at a general meeting, the poll shall be taken –

(a) immediately in the case of a poll which relates to the election of the chairperson of the meeting or to the question of an adjournment; or

(b) in any other case, in such manner and at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairperson directs, and the resolution of the poll on the matter shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that matter.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

RULE 30.

A resolution of the association is a special resolution if –

(a) it is passed by a majority which comprises not less than three-quarters of such members of the association as, being entitled under these rules so to do, vote in person or by proxy at a general meeting of which not less than 21 days’ written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution was given in accordance with these rules; or

(b) where it is made to appear to the Commission that it is not possible or practicable for the resolution to be passed in the manner specified in paragraph (a) – the resolution is passed in a manner specified by the Commissioner.

VOTING

RULE 31.

(1) Each individual, company or honorary member present in person or by proxy at any meeting of the association shall on a show of hands and upon a poll or ballot shall have one vote. Associate, student and sponsor members shall not have voting rights.

(2) All votes shall be given personally or by proxy but no member may hold more than 5 proxies.
In the case of an equality of votes on a question at a general meeting, the chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

A member or proxy is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the association unless all money due and payable by the member or proxy to the association has been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable in respect of the then current year.

A proxy must be a member of the association.

APPPOINTMENT OF PROXIES

RULE 32.

(1) Each member shall be entitled to appoint another member as proxy by notice given to the secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.

(2) The notice appointing the proxy shall be in the form set out in Appendix 2 to these rules.

PART V – MISCELLANEOUS

INSURANCE

RULE 33.

(1) The association shall effect and maintain insurance pursuant to section 44 of the Act.

(2) In addition to the insurance required under clause (1), the association may effect and maintain other insurance.

FUNDS – SOURCE

RULE 34.

(1) The funds of the association shall be derived from entrance fees and annual subscriptions of members, donations and, subject to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, such other sources as the committee determines.

(2) All money received by the association shall be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the association's bank account.

(3) The association shall, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue and appropriate receipt.

FUNDS – MANAGEMENT

RULE 35.

(1) Subject to any resolution passed by the association in general meeting, the funds of the association shall be used in pursuance of the objects of the association in such manner as the committee determines.
(2) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by any 2 members of the committee or employees of the association, being members or employees authorised to do so by the committee.

ALTERATION OF OBJECTS AND RULES

RULE 36.

The statement of objects and these rules may be altered, rescinded or added to only by a special resolution of the association.

COMMON SEAL

RULE 37.

(1) The common seal of the association shall be kept in the custody of the public officer.

(2) The common seal shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of the committee and the affixing of the common seal shall be attested by the signatures either of 2 members of the committee or of 1 member of the committee and of the public officer or secretary.

CUSTODY OF BOOKS ETC.

RULE 38.

Except as otherwise provided by these rules, the public officer shall keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books and other documents relating to the association.

INSPECTION OF BOOKS ETC.

RULE 39.

The records, books and other document of the association shall be open to inspection, free of charge, by a member of the association at any reasonable hour.

SERVICE OF NOTICES

RULE 40.

(1) For the purpose of these rules, a notice may be served by or on behalf of the association upon any member either personally or by sending it by post to the member at the member’s address shown in the register of members.

(2) Where a document is sent to a person by properly addressing, prepaying and posting to the person a letter containing the document, the document shall, unless the contrary is proved, be deemed for the purposes of these rules to have been served on the person at the time at which the letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.
